

Wine Enthusiast

90

POINTS

Editor's Choice

Iris Vineyards 2019 Rosé of Pinot Noir (Willamette Valley)

A pale-copper-cherry hue, this opens aromatically, with scents of rose petals and grapefruit. Those flavors continue, balanced and ripe enough despite the low alcohol, which is itself a bonus when sipping a chilled rosé on a picnic. Fruity and fresh, spicy and tart, this finishes with a touch of watermelon.

- P.G. Published 8/1/2020