

Wine Enthusiast

90

POINTS

Editors' Choice

Iris Vineyards 2017 Pinot Noir (Willamette Valley)

Though more elegant and less rich than the winery's 2016, this value bottle is just as well-made and appealing. Sweet berry fruits, a mix of strawberry and raspberry, come with a bit of red cherry also. The tannins are gentle and smooth, the finish clean and long. The oak was 10% American, the rest French.

— P.G. Published 10/1/2019