

Iris Vineyards 2020 House Call (95 points)

House Call is a hard-working red blend inspired by my husband's grandfather. Doc Boyles was dedicated to caring for patients in small town, rural Oregon. Family lore describes him as doing house calls with a giant man. This man had the responsibility of lifting the car out of muddy ruts on country roads so that Doc Boyles could reach those in need. I like to think that a little bit of the spirit of dedication, care, and problem solving epitomized by Doc Boyles inspires our efforts and finds its way into each bottle of House Call

— Awarded June of 2023

Iris Vineyards 2020 House Call (95 points)

House Call is a hard-working red blend inspired by my husband's grandfather. Doc Boyles was dedicated to caring for patients in small town, rural Oregon. Family lore describes him as doing house calls with a giant man. This man had the responsibility of lifting the car out of muddy ruts on country roads so that Doc Boyles could reach those in need. I like to think that a little bit of the spirit of dedication, care, and problem solving epitomized by Doc Boyles inspires our efforts and finds its way into each bottle of House Call

— Awarded June of 2023

Iris Vineyards 2020 House Call (95 points)

House Call is a hard-working red blend inspired by my husband's grandfather. Doc Boyles was dedicated to caring for patients in small town, rural Oregon. Family lore describes him as doing house calls with a giant man. This man had the responsibility of lifting the car out of muddy ruts on country roads so that Doc Boyles could reach those in need. I like to think that a little bit of the spirit of dedication, care, and problem solving epitomized by Doc Boyles inspires our efforts and finds its way into each bottle of House Call

— Awarded June of 2023

Iris Vineyards 2020 House Call (95 points)

House Call is a hard-working red blend inspired by my husband's grandfather. Doc Boyles was dedicated to caring for patients in small town, rural Oregon. Family lore describes him as doing house calls with a giant man. This man had the responsibility of lifting the car out of muddy ruts on country roads so that Doc Boyles could reach those in need. I like to think that a little bit of the spirit of dedication, care, and problem solving epitomized by Doc Boyles inspires our efforts and finds its way into each bottle of House Call

— Awarded June of 2023